

THE FRONTERA LAND ALLIANCE, THE EL PASO COMMUNITY FOUNDATION
AND THE FRANKLIN MOUNTAIN WILDERNESS COALITION
INVITE YOU TO JOIN THEM AS THEY PRESENT

THE ARCHEOLOGICAL AND HISTORICAL BACKGROUND STUDY OF CASTNER RANGE

THURSDAY,
OCT. 20, 2016
10 A.M.

While most El Pasoans know Castner Range for its annual display of poppies, the Frontera Land Alliance has documented a host of other objects that bridge West Texas' past to its future, making this 7,000-acres of open space worthy of protection as a National Monument.

EL PASO MUSEUM OF ARCHEAOLGY
4301 TRANSMOUNTAIN RD.
EL PASO, TEXAS

